

Geography KS3 Assessment Framework

	Beginning	Working Towards	Expected	Exceeding	Excelling
	Grade 1	Grade 2-3	Grade 4-5	Grade 6-7	Grade 8-9
England	I can: Understand the population is not spread evenly Know some examples of natural features. Comment on weather and climate of England Be able to name some features of a river	I can: Understand that population is not spread evenly and uses key vocab such as sparse and dense. Be able to name several examples of physical features. Explain variations in weather and climate around Britain. Can explain several features in a river	I can: Can explain several reasons why population is not spread evenly Be able to locate several of examples of physical features. Explain in detail variations in weather and climate around Britain. Can explain , in detail how several features in a river form.	I can: Can assess the most important factors why population is not spread evenly. Be able to make links between the physical landscape and other aspects of geography. Explain in detail variations in weather and climate around Britain. Can use data to back this up. Can assess the importance of different factors in the creation of different river features.	I can: Can assess the most important factors why population is not spread evenly. Will use examples to back this up. Be able to make links between the physical landscape and other aspects of geography. Will use examples to back this up. Explain in detail variations in weather and climate around Britain. Can use data to back this up. Will consider how this might change in the future Can assess the importance of different factors in the creation of different river features. Will use real word case studies as examples.